Special Guest Chorus

Cleveland Heights Barbershoppers

Directed by Jesse Lange & Kim Sudduth

The Cleveland Heights Barbershoppers is an audition-only small ensemble. The group often performs in local events and has performed at the BHS Midwinter Convention for the past 4 years. The group performs traditional barbershop songs as well as contemporary music. Their performance Saturday afternoon at the JAD Spring Convention this year left the crowd stunned as 9 young men took the stage and dazzled the audience with an entertaining set.

The men's barbershop group is a part of an active and thriving choral program at Cleveland Heights-University Heights under the direction of Jesse Lange and Kim Sudduth.

JAD Prelims

With Mike Sisk

The JAD International Quartet Preliminary Contest has been proven historically to be the toughest and of highest quality. This is usually evident by way of top notch quartets like our past JAD champs and previous qualifiers returning after they've represented us in previous international competitions. JAD Historivia issues have highlighted multi-time JAD champs, multi-district champs, and multi voice-part champs. With respect to the JAD International Quartet Preliminary Contest, enjoy the following historical data which highlights the great JAD's quartets and quartet performers with their first place finishes!

I hope you've enjoyed this issue of BHS Historivia. y goal is to make it interesting every time! If you have any comments or questions feel free to contact me at clarionstate76@comcast.net or (412) 913-2896.

Vocal Seniority

20 JAD chapters were represented at the Midwinter Convention this past winter in the International Senior Barbershop Chorus Festival as members of Vocal Seniority where they took first place. Vocal Seniority did a victory lap at the JAD Spring Convention by performing their contest set under the direction of Doug Smeltz. Preparations and registration are already under way for next year's chorus.

2016 Director of the Year Don Dressler

Don started out his musical adventure at the ripe old age of 7 yrs old singing in the church youth choir. He got influenced by his mom in barbershop and helped pass out fliers for her local Sweet Adeline Chapter that same year. He did solo work in high school and was the first one to ever compete and qualify from his high school to the All-Ohio State Fair Youth Choir in 1982. Being influenced by his mother Don was a charter member of the Medina Honeycomb Chordsmen in 1981 and in 1983 he transferred to the Canton Hall of Fame Chorus and graduated from Wadsworth High School. He joined the USAF in 1984. While in the Air Force he was stationed in Denver, Co and was a member and baritone section leader of the 1987 International 7th place Chorus Denver Mile High and in 1988 helped charter a brand new chorus in Denver called Denver Tech where he was on the music team and Baritone section leader. He moved back to Ohio in 1989 and was once again a member of the Canton Hall Of Fame chorus. He moved to North Huntingdon, Pa in 1990.

In 1991 Don married his wife Kristin and currently still lives in North Huntingdon, Pa with their 7 cats and 3 dogs. On an interesting note Don and Kristin were married at a dog show and when the preacher asked “if there was anybody here that think these two should not be wed speak now or forever hold your peace”, the entire show got deathly quiet. I guess that even the animals knew they were meant to be together.

Don has been in several choruses throughout his barbershop history. After moving back to the Johnny Appleseed District he helped The Butler Notables and The Mon Valley Chorus both win small chorus championships. He has sung in several quartets singing both baritone and lead. He also directed two Sweet Adeline Choruses in the area and has coached both choruses and quartets from all over the tri-state area. Don began his second tour directing the Steel City Harmonizers in 2008 and continued until early 2017. Don’s philosophy is “if you aren’t having fun or learning then why do it”.

Well apparently I missed quite the party last night when I opted out of hospitality fun early, but I still had a ton of fun this weekend. JAD puts on a fantabulous convention, and I'm glad I could be a part of it.

Congrats to all of our qualifiers, including those who competed elsewhere...looking forward to seeing you on the International Stage! And kudos to ALL of our competitors, who continue to make JAD shine. 💕💕

It was a full day of music and musicals yesterday and I'm exhausted but exhilarated. Proud of our MOI performance on the JAD stage, bursting with pride at Gio's performance in All Shook Up and had a blast at our hospitality suite after the convention. Man there is some talent in this district! Congrats to all who crossed the stage - and graced us with their presence and performance in the suite! #17JADSpring
